

Women
Trainees
Interest
Group

Women Trainees Interest Group or WTIG, a group created for women residents from all programs at UIC. Our group's mission is to improve the health of underserved women in our community through advocacy and community outreach; to create mentorship for physicians in training; and to enhance education about women's health within UIC's residency programs.

Aims & Past Events

Community Service

- health information sessions at Apna Ghar
- “Domestic Violence” training
- Sarah’s circle

Mentorship

- “Meet Women Faculty” podcasts
- “Women in Medicine” panel
- Northwestern Women in Medicine Conference

Education

- Nexplanon training
 - “Running Codes for Women” with critical care department
 - narrative medicine
 - Journal Club
-

Upcoming Events

- August: “Domestic Violence Training” with Apna Ghar
 - September: “Racism in Medicine” with Dr. Conner
 - October: “Women in Medicine Summit” (virtual conference, Oct 9-10th)
 - Social events and community volunteering as COVID allows!
-

Join us!

We are looking to expand outside internal medicine to include all specialties including fellows!

Advisors: Dr. Anne Polick and Dr. Cheryl Conner (General IM)

Join us!

We want to hear your ideas!

Email us if interested in joining the mailing list!

Jillian Caldwell, IM PGY2/3 - jcaldw23@uic.edu

Laura Casalegno, IM PGY2/3 - mcasaleg@uic.edu

Zoe Haemer Med/Peds PGY 3/4 - zhaeme2@uic.edu
